THRIFT IS REMEDY FOR BOLSHIEVISM TEACHERS' CONFERENCE IS TOLD

First District of Ulster Teachers Promise Aid in Response to Government's Appeal Through Postmaster DeWitt---The Program.

A teachers' conference of the first supervisory district of Ulster county, is being held today at public school No. 5, and will close Tuesday afternoon.

After the opening exercises this morning Postmaster DeWitt gave a talk on "Thrifty" as the best means to combat the serious economic problem which confront the country.

After a review of the war, its results and the part played by this country, Mr. DeWitt said:

During all this time a great change had come over America. The allied powers had entered upon plans among their people to encourage saving as soon as the confederation broke out in 1914. France was always thrifty but England began to teach the lesson of thrift to her people. America became more extravagant than ever. Gold flowed toward our shores incessantly since 1914 and the United States became the great creditor nation of the world. Wealth was rapidly created but almost as swiftly spent. Commodities rose in price necessitating wage increases at frequent intervals. Hundreds of millions were made almost overnight. Speculation ran riot after the opening of the exchanges. Luxury was the order of the day among all classes to the limit of their incomes. Money was never so plentiful. But upon America's entry into the world struggle the heads of our government immediately planned to halt the spending of the people's resources by themselves and begin turning their minds toward the lesson of thrift, thus assisting the nation to prosecute the war. The best of England's and France's methods were adopted and improved upon after deep thought by master minds in our world of finance. Many original programs were inaugurated in America also. Frank A. Vanderlip, J. Pierpont Morgan, Secretary McAdoo and others then launched the great campaign to teach America thrift.

As a result of America's patriotism, loyalty, determination, depth of character and common sense, the great War Loans to the amount of $26,000,000,000 were oversubscribed from the savings of the people, $1,500,000,000 invested in War Savings and Thrift Stamps, billions in war activities given with lavish hand, carlines Bank's deposits increased, and all charitable and religious work and education of the young continued without halt or interruption. This was a giant task but America was equal to the emergency and had found herself. By the conservation of her immense resources the United States was enabled to loan her Allies $30,000,000,000, tide over their financial stress, and with the help of her Army and Navy, make certain the issue of the war in fact bring it to an early conclusion in 1919.

During the eventful period since 1917 alluded to, and especially after the signing of the terms of Armistice, our beloved country has been assailed by elements of unrest. Bolshevism imported from Russia, anarchy and strife. Until prices of the necessities of life, costs of operating and kindred matters are adjusted in the days of reconstruction now on the people of America must remain true to the high ideals and traditions of their country's past. The Thrift Citizens Movement provides the practical remedy.

Channing Rudd, Controller of the Government Loan Organization, states the issue in few words: "The present economic situation in the United States is one which challenges the best thought and action of every individual whose influence will count. The adverse possibilities in the situation are serious. High prices, general mental restlessness, the diminishing purchasing power of the dollar, the need for increased production, and decreased consumption but indicate how fundamental are the problems involved. It is a condition which must be met, and met promptly. The responsibility is upon us as individuals. National Thrift is the practical remedy. The Thrift Citizens Movement is not a "drive" for money. The position of the U. S. Treasury is strong. We desire to enlist as active participants and leaders in the movement as many as possible, men and women who by the force of their own example, their own acts, are able to spread the doctrine of Thrift. An immediate increase in the practice of Thrift on the part of the American people is the paramount issue of today."

You, as teachers, have kept in touch with the plan to enroll the school children of America in the Thrift Movement. You have succeeded to a great degree. During the war you could appeal to their patriotism and patriotism. After they had formed the habit, it is now our duty to see that it is continued. The Government Loan Organization now desires you to invest in Treasury Certificates, first and foremost, and to buy even the Thrift and place your surplus in savings banks. War Savings Stamps or some safe investment. The principle is "Save and Invest." By such means you will draw others. Encourage your pupils to take care of the pennies, the nickels, dimes and quarters. Keep up your school savings banks, your Thrift Stamp and War Savings Clubs with equal intensity as during the war. We urge you to push the Thrift bank plan among your students. The government organization at 120 Broadway, New York, will provide you with necessary literature and whatever else is required. The postmasters in each village have the Thrift and War Savings Stamps and can secure for you the Treasury Certificates on demand.

We ask that you make this movement a permanent part of your school work. Beginning with Armistice Day anniversary, November 11th, we are launching the Thrift Citizens Movement to make America Thrifty. We especially urge the investment in Treasury Certificates as an evidence of your intention. Also encourage the families of the children you are teaching to adopt this national habit also. At the same time forget not the mites of the young children in the Thrift banks and school savings banks, which should be under way in each room.

I desire to express the appreciation of the Government Loan Organization for requesting a statement from me upon this subject. Superintendents Burnett and yourselves have been very active in upholding the honor of Ulster county during, and since the ending of hostilities. I feel that I can send word to New York and Washington that you will all join this great movement toward thrift and thus remove an insidious enemy now striving to raise its head amongst us.

The conference promised to aid the movement all possible. Miss Schriber then spoke on "Physical Training" and R. E. Coon of Poughkeepsie on "The Making of an American."

The afternoon session was devoted to a discussion on "School Lunches," by Miss Mary McCormack and another address on physical training by Miss Schriber.

The program for Tuesday follows: 9:10-9:20—Opening Exercises. 9:20-10:00—A Message to Teachers Miss Herrig. 11:10-12:00—Picture Study Mr. Bennett. 1:30-1:40—Roll Call. 1:40-2:15—Projects Mr. Mattinson. 2:20-3:30—Health Conference Dr. Howe.

The instructors at the conference this year are: Dr. W. A. Howe, state medical inspector of schools; Miss McCormack, of the educational department; Mr. Mattinson, Mr. Bennett, and Miss Herrig, of the New Paltz Normal School; Mr. Coon of Poughkeepsie, Miss Frances Schriber, physical instructor; Postmaster DeWitt and Major Frank Meagher.

Miss Emily S. Burnett is the district superintendent of schools.

RED CROSS DRIVE NEARING END

Workers Meet Tonight Before Going Out to Assist Kingston's Generous Response.

The last trenches are to be taken in the Red Cross drive between now and Wednesday evening. After the campaign workers' meeting in the Y. M. C. A. this evening at 9 o'clock, the workers will go out to bring in the members needed to retain Kingston's record of always doing its part in the Red Cross campaign.

The peace program of the Red Cross is making a strong appeal for the victims of disaster, of bad health conditions and the many other evils of life under peace conditions can not be left without the organized friendship and help of the American people.

But the point which stands out with perhaps the greatest appeal in this drive is the unfinished war work that the Red Cross can not leave alone.

MISS JOHNSON BETTER TODAY

Stenographer Struck by Auto Sunday Rallies From Shock and Although Badly Bruised and With a Severely Fractured Leg is Not Fatally Hurt.

Miss Sara A. Johnson of 133 Green street is a patient at the Benedictine Sanitarium, under surgical treatment for a compound fracture of the right leg above the ankle, the result of being struck by an automobile on the Kingston-West Hurley highway, near the John Walker residence, in the town of Ulster, across the Higginsville bridge. Besides the fracture of the leg Miss Johnson received a cut across the left side of her forehead about three inches long, a sprained wrist and was very badly bruised. The accident happened about 4:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon while Miss Johnson was walking on the highway. The auto which struck her was driven by Miss Roxey Van Kleef of Poughkeepsie, in the car with her being Ralph Yerry of Allaben, employed by the Degnon Construction Co., which is building the tunnel for the New York water works through the Shawangunk mountain.

The story told by Mr. Yerry of the accident is that he was coming towards Kingston in the automobile and had crossed the flats when they saw Miss Johnson ahead of them, also a boy on a bicycle. A car was coming towards them and another auto was behind them, and they trailed behind the boy on the bicycle and Miss Johnson in order to allow the approaching car to pass, which it did. They then pulled out in order to pass Miss Johnson and the boy, the car behind following them but put on speed with the evident intention of going by as it came up alongside of their car. In order to avoid hitting this car Miss Van Kleef pulled out to the side of the road, and the car ran into the ditch alongside of the road. Miss Johnson was then struck by the left mudguard, which was unavoidable, and the car got out of the ditch, which he considers miraculous as the car did not turn over. Seeing that Miss Johnson was hit bad Miss Van Kleef stopped their car, and he, with assistance, took Miss Johnson to the residence of John Walker, the market gardener. A telephone message was sent to police headquarters for the city ambulance, which was sent.

Dr. E. Forest Sibley of this city, happening along, was called and suggested that Miss Johnson be taken to her home for treatment, which was done and Mrs. William J. and John C. O'Leary were summoned. They directed that the injured young woman be taken to the Benedictine Sanitarium. She was conveyed there and the doctors gave her the necessary surgical attention. It was found that the compound fracture of the leg was a very bad one, the bone having protruded from the flesh. The wound on the forehead also required being closed with stitches. She was unconscious for a time at first, but today was in fair condition considering shock and injuries, and nothing more serious is apprehended.

Miss Johnson is a most popular young woman, being a stenographer and typist, having been for thirteen years a valued employee of Judge Amos Van Etten, referee in bankruptcy. Her jovial disposition and good nature making all with whom she came in contact in business her friends. All regret her misfortune and hope that she will soon be able to return to her position, none the worse for the unfortunate accident.

LENINE'S APPEAL PRINTED HERE

Few of Reds Taken in New York Held—Tons of Literature Seized—Thousands of Communists Known.

New York, Nov. 10.—Only 35 of the 500 persons arrested by the state, city and federal police in the raid on 27 headquarters in Greater New York on Saturday were held for examination in the nation-wide crusade against Bolshevism sympathizers. All others were released. The officials were said to be planning other raids. Among the "hundreds of tons of anarchist literature, seized in the second series of raids Saturday night in Manhattan, Brooklyn and the Bronx, were said to be revolutionary appeals from Nicolai Lenin, the "Red dictator" of Russia.

Officials declared that investigation of the literature showed that there are between 7,500 and 10,000 members of the Communist party living in or near New York and that all are liable to arrest.

Our Atomic Changes Plans. By Telegram to The Freeman. Paris, Nov. 10.—The French Minister of Finance and Premier Clemenceau, who have gone to England on an official visit, will confer with Premier Lloyd George and Foreign Secretary Lord Curzon on "atomic" details concerning the execution of the peace treaty in the view of the new tendency which has developed in the United States. Marcel Marin stated in the Echo de Paris today.

N. Y. COMMUNISTS NEARLY ALL ALIEN

Lusk Says Work of Cleaning Up Reds in New York Will Go On—Larkin, Irish Agitator and Radical Socialist, Among Prisoners.

By Telegram to The Freeman. New York, Nov. 10.—Senator Clayton Lusk, chairman of the executive committee, which is co-operating with the department of justice in clearing New York of anarchists, declared that the "work will go on."

He said that practically all of the members of the Communist Party in New York are aliens.

The fact that 71 different headquarters of the Communist Party have already been raided here shows the wide extent of the party's activities, said Senator Lusk.

Agents of the department of justice and the police officials are tabulating the documents found in the various Red and Communist gathering places to get the following facts:

- 1—Names of members.
- 2—Source of funds.
- 3—Method used in communicating with European anarchists.
- 4—Location of printing presses turning out Red literature.

It has already been found that a considerable sum of money has been sent to this country from Europe and that levies have been made in industrial districts that are largely inhabited by foreigners.

Some of the documents were printed in English and others in foreign languages. The most radical of them called for the overthrow of the government by violence, saying that the time is now ripe for revolution.

The immigration authorities are taking a hand in the examinations of the latest batch of prisoners. It is expected that some of them will be deported along with other undesirable captured in Saturday night's raids.

John Reed, one of the organizers of the Communist Party in this city, was today reported to be on his way to Russia to confer with Soviet officials.

James Larkin, agitator for Irish freedom, and a co-worker with Reed in radical Socialist activities, was one of the prisoners taken in the Communist raids. He was held by the police and was expected to be arraigned along with other prisoners some time during the day.

CORK DISORDER IS QUIETED

By Telegram to The Freeman. Cork, Ireland, Nov. 10.—Order was restored here early today, after a brief reign of terror during which fighting occurred in the streets and shops were broken into. Several shots were fired. Troops supported by armored cars were sent out from the barracks.

The trouble is said to have started when soldiers from a Shropshire regiment went into the streets shouting: "To hell with the Sinn Fein."

Several clashes followed. The police intervened on the side of the soldiers, but it was some time before quiet was restored.

G. O. P. LEADERS MEET WITH HAYS

By Telegram to The Freeman. Chicago, Nov. 10.—Republican national committeemen from a score or more states, here for a "love feast" with National Chairman Will H. Hays, today "will not discuss presidential candidates."

Hays declared that the meeting today was to be a "get together meeting" only and that presidential possibilities would not be discussed. It is persistently rumored that an effort to decide on the location of the coming national convention will be made today. St. Louis is not after the convention but those in a position to know say the Republicans will meet in Chicago to select their next candidate for president of the United States.

Steamer Gretstone Imperilled. By Telegram to The Freeman. Halifax, N. S., Nov. 10.—Aid has been rushed to the British steamer Gretstone which reported herself in danger of destruction off Sable Island, "the Graveyard of the Atlantic," as a result of losing her propeller blades in a gale. The steamer was only two miles from the sands of the island when the last "SOS" calls were sent out. The Gretstone, a ship of 2,412 tons, was bound from Hampton Roads, Va., to England.

Mrs. Carranza Dead. By Telegram to The Freeman. Mexico City, Mex., Nov. 10.—Messages of condolence for the death of his wife were received by President Carranza today from the senate, chamber of deputies, the supreme court and the diplomatic corps. Mrs. Carranza died at Queretaro at 2:39 o'clock Sunday afternoon after a long illness. The funeral will be at Cuatrecasas.

Parent-Teachers No. 2. A regular meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association of School No. 2 will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

STRIKE UP TO COURTS AND COURTS MUST BE OBEYED SAYS WHITE HOUSE

MRS. WYNKOOP DIED OF WOUND

Mrs. Celia Wynkoop of Stone Ridge died shortly after 4 o'clock this morning at the Kingston City Hospital from the effects of a bullet wound in the brain, thought to be self-inflicted. Coroner E. A. Kelly was notified and he directed Dr. A. A. Stern to perform an autopsy today.

The details of the shooting as far as they are known were given in detail in Saturday's Freeman. Mrs. Wynkoop was keeping house for Charles Young at Stone Ridge, and later left him to keep house for Elmer Ayers of High Falls, who she met at a dance. She came back last Monday to Young's to get some clothing, stating that Ayers was coming for her.

Young left the house, according to the story told the officials of the district attorney's office, and when he returned later with "Old Mike" Van Demark he found Ayers and his son just alighting from their Ford car. They all entered the house together and found the woman lying on the bed with the bullet wound in her head. That was the evening of November 3. She was brought to the hospital November 7.

GALE HITS SHIPPING HARD

Polar Land Lost, Four Other Steamers Wrecked in North Atlantic—Heavy Loss of Life Feared.

By Telegram to The Freeman. Boston, Nov. 10.—Loss of the United States Shipping Board steamer Polar Land, with the crew of fifty men in life boats being sought, four other steamships in distress, a schooner wrecked off Portland, Me., and the wreckage of another schooner washed ashore at Scituate, Mass., gave evidence today of several sea tragedies.

A wireless message, received at the naval radio station here, told of the plight of the Polar Land. A call for help was intercepted by the high powered wireless station at Otter Cliffs, Me., and was relayed to Boston. A message from the U. S. S. Billingham also said the Polar Land was in need of assistance. Her position was given as latitude 44.25 north and longitude 57.50 west, a point about 250 miles east of Halifax, N. S. Another wireless said that the steamship Kanawha had gone to the Polar Land's assistance but that the latter had not been found. The rescue ship began a search for the fifty men from the Polar Land who had put out in lifeboats.

The Greek steamship Latea, the navy yard wireless heard, was ashore on Cape Sable. The British steamer Gretstone was reported in a perilous position with her propeller blades gone off Sable Island.

The Telemachus, a Canadian vessel, sent out a call for help from the vicinity of Cape Breton, and a fourth steamship off the Nova Scotia coast, which did not give her name, said she, too, was in need of assistance.

Wreckage of a schooner found floating off Ragged Island, Portland, Me., by fisherman, is believed to be part of a three-master that went to pieces on the ledges during the recent gale. The crew is supposed to have perished.

Coast guardsmen today were searching for the bodies. The name of the wrecked craft is unknown. Wreckage of a schooner bearing the number 216,132, was washed ashore at Plum Cove, Scituate, Mass. Naval men thought it was part of the schooner Lochmole from Philadelphia. The wreckage was the top of a vessel's cabin. It had been recently painted. The name "Cadman" was written in pencil on the wood. Word was received today that the Gloucester fishing schooner Natalie Hammond was seriously damaged in the gale and had put into Liverpool, N. S.

LOWER INCOME TAX THIS YEAR

By Telegram to The Freeman. Washington, Nov. 10.—Income taxes for 1919 will be lower than for 1918, according to an announcement made today by the bureau of internal revenue, which is making plans for the issuance next month of forms for filing income and excess profits returns.

The normal rate of tax for 1919 is 4 per cent of the first $4,000 above the exemptions and 8 per cent on the remaining net income. The tax for 1918 was 6 and 12 per cent respectively. The surtax rates, which range from 1 per cent on the amount of the net income between $5,000 and $6,000, to 55 per cent of the amount by which the net income exceeds $11,000,000, are the same as for 1918. The exemptions of $1,000 for single persons and $2,000 for married persons and heads of families remain unchanged.

Alien non-residents receiving income from sources within the United States are subject to the full tax of 8 per cent on such income in excess of the exemptions.

ROUNDING UP DRUG PEDDLERS

By Telegram to The Freeman. Chicago, Nov. 10.—Fifteen Chicago physicians are slated for arrest during today, in which federal agents predict will be a startling nationwide round up of traffickers in forbidden drugs—opium, morphine, heroin and other drugs coming under the narcotic law.

Special investigator Joe Peake of Washington, who has been investigating the drug traffic in this city for the past year, declares his investigation has shown that Chicago is the headquarters for "drug peddlers" and that great quantities of forbidden drugs are shipped from this city to New York, St. Louis, Washington, San Francisco, Memphis and Knoxville and other cities where the drug traffic is said to be heavy.

Peake predicted arrests today and tomorrow in all of the above named cities.

A. F. L. Proclamation To Have No Effect In Staying Legal Proceedings—Tribunal Ready Soon As Miners Call Off Strike.

By Telegram to The Freeman. Washington, Nov. 10.—"The situation is in the hands of the court. The sovereignty of America must be upheld."

This statement was made at the White House today relative to the coal situation and the declaration of the American Federation of Labor in support of the strike.

President Wilson stands ready to appoint a tribunal for the settlement of the trouble if the miners comply with the order of the courts, it was announced at the White House.

"Until the order of the courts is complied with the situation will rest with the judiciary," it was stated.

One high official stated today that it appeared like "another Fort Sumter."

Washington, Nov. 10.—The government will go ahead with its proceedings against the coal strike leaders.

The proclamation of the American Federation of Labor caused some surprise in administration circles, but it will have no effect on the pronounced policy of the federal government, according to officials here today.

It is considered that President Samuel Gompers, of the labor federation, and his conservative followers, have lost control of the labor movement and that the radicals have swept the field. It is being freely predicted here that a split in labor is not the remotest of possibilities.

The country is divided into hostile camps. The interior situation of the United States has been likened to what the situation was in Europe in July, 1914, a few weeks before the great war burst upon the world.

The industrial Sarajevo, observers here point out, has been passed. The day of ultimatums has arrived.

Representatives of the coal miners here declare that it does not matter whether Acting President John L. Lewis, their leader, obeys the order of the federal court in Indianapolis, commanding him to call off the strike, or refuses to obey it. The men, themselves, they say, will not return to the mines and the strike will go on the same as before.

The general impression in Washington, therefore, seems to be that the nation has reached one of the most serious crises in its history and that the next 48 hours only can tell which way the country is headed—whether calm reasoning will prevail or whether the people are in for a spell of troublesome times.

Talk of a general strike was in the air when the executive council of the American Federation of Labor met today.

The executive council will mark time in Washington until definite action is taken by the strike leaders in Indianapolis.

Railway workers' unions, connected with the American Federation of Labor, have already set a strike date in the event that their demands are not met by the railway administration, and labor leaders expressed the opinion today that the "strike might come in time to help the miners."

250 ANARCHISTS HELD IN DETROIT

By Telegram to The Freeman. Detroit, Mich., Nov. 10.—Government agents Saturday night and Sunday arrested 250 more alleged anarchists and every jail and police station is crowded with the suspects today.

Examination of the men arrested will be made today looking to deportation.

Fear Light Keepers Lost. By Telegram to The Freeman. Quebec, Que., Nov. 10.—It is feared that two lives have been lost in the lightning on Big Island in the lower St. Lawrence river, several miles below Quebec. The marine department received word today that no light had been shown since Thursday and investigation has been ordered. There were two persons on duty in the light-house.

Rock Seized in Ohio. By Telegram to The Freeman. Akron, O., Nov. 10.—Twenty-five more alleged members of the Russian Workers' Council were held today in the county jail as a result of a raid in which more than 100 men were questioned. Because of threats made by foreigners to liberate the prisoners special guards were thrown about the jail last night.

Famous Trial Ends. By Telegram to The Freeman. New, Nov. 10.—D. Solovitch, famous Serbian actor, was today acquitted of the murder of Madame Caroline Zem, wife of a wealthy Frenchman, in a sensational trial. The verdict was delivered after forty minutes' deliberation.

Body Drawn Corps. By Telegram to The Freeman. New, Nov. 10.—A communication has been addressed to Nicolai Lenin, Bolshevik premier of Russia, by Minister Muskhaga Khatami, proposing an alliance with Turkey, according to an Exchange Telegram dispatch from Constantinople today.

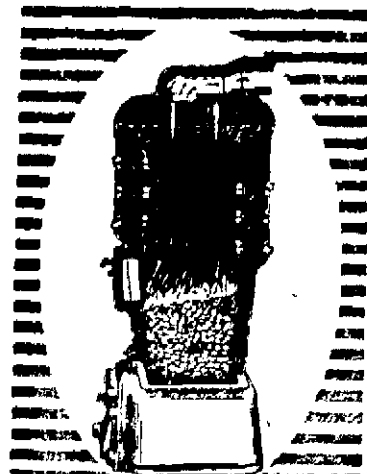

Got a Rock. Fred Robinson of 30 Cedar street was one of the fortunate ones to acquire a deer this season while hunting at Mt. Tremper. It weighed 175 pounds and had six antlers.

All members of the Valley Drum Corps are requested by on hand Tuesday night at rehearsal and also by those meeting at the tickets for the drum will be distributed to the members.

Plenty of Heat for all Rooms

Boynton Square Pot Boilers steam up quickly. An even heat is maintained, for the fire is kept clear of ash and clinker. The exclusive square form of firepot allows the use of grate bars all of the same length. Ashes drop as freely at all sides as in the center. Cutter bar smashes clinkers.

Like the firebox of an engine boiler, the firepot of the Boynton is square. The square bed of coal heats a greater radiating area and uses less coal. Only Boynton-made boilers for domestic use have square firepots.

DRYS DIDN'T BEAT CONNELLY

Dr. Chase Says Whittaker Secured Prohibition Nomination by Trickery and But One or Two of That Party Voted for Him at Election.

Kingston Freeman.
Mr. Editor:—Will you allow me through your valued paper to make a statement which needs to be made so that none may suffer unjustly?

It has been said to me: "You Prohibitionists defeated Dr. Connelly in the Eleventh ward." And on the surface it would seem to be the truth, not so, however, when all the facts are known.

I might say just here that he was defeated by some in his own party who tried to nominate another person, which action was repudiated by that same political party at the primary.

The Prohibition party proposes to treat men and parties fairly and honorably.

When the members of the city Prohibition committee met, prior to the primary, it was unanimously decided to endorse the seven aldermen who voted to sustain the sanctity of the Christian Sabbath.

Personally I secured the petition in the various wards, including also some candidates who were vouched for, and also endorsing Alderman Van Valkenburgh for supervisor in the Ninth ward.

(And by the way, I want to state just here that the Prohibition vote of that ward elected him.)

Unfortunately, in two wards no Prohibition votes were cast at the primary, and therefore some whom we endorsed did not get on the ticket.

Everything seemed satisfactory to the party.

But a person who was trying to secure the nomination against Dr. Connelly seemed to think that if he could not control his own party vote, as the sequel proved, he could control the Prohibition vote, and by almost superhuman exertion did secure the votes of one man and eight women who were enrolled as Prohibitionists. Eight only voted for Dr. Connelly, while the rest were content to remain at home never suspecting that a trick was being played on the party. That gave Mr. Whittaker the nomination on the Prohibition ticket and gave the opportunity to defeat the doctor.

I want to say just here that the votes recorded for Mr. Whittaker at the recent election did not come from the Prohibitionists.

I personally saw all but one or two of the enrolled Prohibitionists and explained the case to them and am positive that not more than one or two voted for Mr. Whittaker.

Since the primary has been into effect, the Republican party, the Democrat party and the dead and well nigh forgotten Progressive party have tried to steal the Prohibition nomination, and in every case have thus been defeated at the primary election.

To accomplish this has cost the Prohibition party effort and money, for in every case before this their plans were known before the primary, and letters were sent to all enrolled Prohibitionists in the county, or the district in question. Our people were on their guard and overwhelmingly defeated them at the primary.

In one case, which I remember, not giving the seeking candidate a single vote, and save in a single instance they were not only defeated for office but relegated to the political scrap heap in the one exception the leading benchman of the candidate has since been repudiated by his own party.

In one case it meant sending a letter to every enrolled Prohibitionist in seven counties.

It might not be best for me here to express my estimate of any man who tries to steal the nomination of another political party. To me it is worse than stealing my purse.

"Who steals my purse, steals trash. 'Tis something, nothing: But he that filches from me my good name (or that of my political party) Robs me of that which not enriches him, And makes me poor indeed."

G. C. C. Club Met.

The second important meeting of the G. C. C. was held Thursday afternoon. The meeting was called to order by the president and the minutes of the last meeting were read by the secretary. There being no objections or corrections to the minutes they stood approved as read. Some old business of profound importance was discussed and voted upon. At this meeting the club, at the suggestion of one of its members, adopted a sign, cheer and also a club emblem. A motion was made that a vice president and treasurer be elected, which motion was carried and voted upon. The business meeting then adjourned and was followed by a delightful social program, in which the president gave a most interesting and novel talk. Light refreshments were then served, the treasurer acting as hostess. The next meeting of the club will be one of great importance and all members are urged to be present.

MANY DESIRE JOB AS COP

Secretary Taylor, of the civil service board, stated this morning that so far he had received twelve applications to take the policemen's examination to be held Friday evening by the board to make up an eligible list to submit to the police board. There are two vacancies on the police force to be filled, caused by the resignation of Officers Dunn and Van Buren. Those desiring to take the examination should file their application with Secretary Taylor as quickly as possible.

LAST DAYS FOR CHARTER MEMBERS

The charter of Kingston Post, No. 130 American Legion, will close Tuesday, November 11, and today and tomorrow will be the last that the soldiers and sailors who took part in the world war will be able to enroll as charter members of the American Legion. Any soldier, sailor or marine who participated in the recent war is eligible to enrollment in the American Legion. The American Legion is the big veterans' organization, the organization which in the future will rank as does the Grand Army of the Republic with the veterans of the Civil War.

There are still a large number of men who went away from Kingston during the war and who are eligible to join the Legion. The charter must close on Armistice Day and that will be the last day on which you can enroll as a charter member of the organization. The charter will be sent in Tuesday and all men who enroll and pay their entrance fee of $2 by that time will be enrolled as a charter member.

Any of the officers of the organization or the secretary, Eugene B. Carey, will accept your application and forward it with the other charter members. It will be possible to join the American Legion after Tuesday but you will not be enrolled as a charter member.

HUMMEL RECITAL TONIGHT.

Earle to Play the Main Part of the Program.

This evening there will be held at the Elmendorf Street Presbyterian Church a most interesting concert given by Earle and Stanley Hummel and the Hummel String Quartet. While the main part of the program will be given by Earle who will play the Spohr Concerto (for violin) in E minor, a movement from the beautiful Wieniawski Concerto in D minor, and the Fantasia Appassionata by Chopin, that marvelous composition which as a tiny lad he used to play to his father because he could not play it as well as his father when his tiny hands would not so much as compass the necessary stretches, etc.—the other numbers on the program are all most interesting. Stanley Hummel, who is proving himself a youthful master of the piano, will play the "Caprice Espagnol" by Moszkowski, and the Hummel String Quartet will play the Quartet in F Major by Haydn. The concert will begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

The Coterie.

On Saturday last the Coterie met with Miss Deudney at her home on Broadway. Three exceptionally interesting, informing and entertaining papers were read. The first on "A Group of Marine and Landscape Painters; Wyatt Eaton, Horatio Walter, Winslow Homer," was given by Miss Hale. Miss Huber had the second paper, "The Marines of Alexander Hamilton, William T. Richard and The Morans." The third paper was by Mrs. Ellis and had added interest from the fact that Mrs. Ellis was personally acquainted with the artist of whom she wrote: "American Painters in Europe, Carl Meitner, Frederick - Bridgeman and Henry Mosler. The next meeting of the Coterie will be with Miss Hale.

Auto Run Away.

This morning an automobile bearing the license number 957-294 was left standing on Abel street in front of Weber's butcher shop. While the driver was away for a minute the auto started to run away and crashed into the window of Dr. Bern's store at the head of Abel street on Broadway. A woman passenger, said to be Mrs. Turner of St. James street, was in the car when it ran away, but aside from being badly frightened she was not injured. The front of the store was somewhat marred, and the fender on the car was bent. The car left after under its own power.

A Pan Cake Supper.

The Young Men's Bible Class of the Fair Street Reformed Church will give a pan cake supper in the Sunday school room on Friday evening, November 14, between the hours of 7:30 and 9:30. Tickets may be secured from any member of the class. This supper will be given for the benefit of the Old Ladies' Home.

Turned the Ford Over.

Sunday afternoon the runaway of Louis Hamming and the Ford sedan of Mr. McCaffrey came together at Clifton and Springfield avenues. The Ford got under the wheel of it, and was turned completely over. Fortunately no one was injured. The runaway was also damaged.

RED CROSS READY FOR SERVICE IN BIG DISASTERS

1,500,000 Lives Lost and $1,000,000,000 in Property Destroyed in Disasters Since 1900

Preparedness for disaster relief on a scale never before possible is being undertaken by the American Red Cross. It has just been announced, as one of the important features of its wide peace program, for the support of which an effort will be made to secure a record membership during the Third Red Cross Roll Call, November 2 to 11.

Experience shows that suffering incident to public disasters can be greatly reduced by extension of the Red Cross machinery for supplying emergency relief and knowledge gained in putting through the task of the Red Cross in the war is to be used to the greatest possible advantage.

Because of the lack of the spectacular in many of them it is not generally realized how frequently, year after year, disasters occur, bringing wide devastation, death and suffering in their wake. Since 1900 disasters of peace have cost many thousands of lives and have brought personal injury and property losses to no fewer than 1,500,000 persons. At the same time destroying property valued at over $1,000,000,000. During 1917 alone, eighty disasters came to the attention of the American Red Cross, sixty-two tornadoes, five floods, four great fires, two earthquakes, two serious mine explosions, two munition plant explosions, a race riot, a shipwreck and the tragic calamity which befell Halifax. The total of deaths entailed was 1758, while 5937 were injured and the property loss reached $110,000,000.

Speed of Fire Department.

That, in brief, is the situation that demands a preparedness for emergency relief comparable to the service and speed required of the fire department and that is what the Red Cross, to which the people instinctively turn when fire, flood, tornado, or great accident comes to leave men, women and children dead, injured, homeless or starving, is to supply Under its direction the entire resources of all communities for emergency relief will be mobilized for instant use when needed. Red Cross Chapters everywhere will create disaster preparedness committees that will make surveys locating not only emergency food supplies, drugs and other hospital supplies, cots, mattresses, blankets, clothing, schools, armories and other buildings for housing refugees, but will also canvass physicians, nurses, social workers and others prepared to respond instantly to calls for their services in disasters.

Information gathered in these surveys will be collated and filed by the thirteen Red Cross Divisional organizations in the United States, which will establish disaster relief supply centers and take charge of operations when assistance is needed. In case of major disasters, where the resources of the Division in which it occurs are over-taxed, the entire relief strength of the Red Cross in the country will be mobilized, through national headquarters. And in both large and small disasters there will be so ready for immediate relief duty the equipment and personnel of the fifty base hospitals organized by the American Red Cross and turned over to the Army for service in France.

Disaster Manual Compiled.

For the guidance of its representatives at the scene of disasters a comprehensive Relief Manual has been compiled by J. Byron Deacon, director-general of the American Red Cross Department of Civilian Relief, who is charged with responsibility for Red Cross funds and operations in disasters. The Manual, which will be distributed to Chapters throughout the country, calls attention to the frequency of disasters and urges that relief to be effective must be swift and centralized. In accordance with the Manual the principle upon which Red Cross service will be extended to disaster-stricken communities is to place the resources represented by its membership, preparedness and influence, at the disposal of the afflicted community without delay.

The local community, so far as possible, is depended upon to provide its own relief, with the Division and National Red Cross organizations standing ready to rush additional aid where it is necessary. The extensive and varied experience of the Red Cross places it in a peculiar position to offer sound counsel. It has built up a trained and seasoned staff of relief workers and will leave no file in Division offices. Its list of experienced disaster workers under agreement to go, at a moment's notice, to any stricken territory.

A. R. C. Sewing School.

REGRADING—The first Senior School of Domestic Science is expected to grow out of the sewing school started by the American Red Cross here some time ago. The school was equipped with American sewing machines and materials, and its expenses on a permanent basis has now been entered by the organization of a supporting society, known as the "Ladies of Belgrade."

strike, preaching physical force, appealing to the negroes to form voluntary military companies of those who were in the draft and to lead competent negro officers to command them. We read that "there is something through these editorials a spirit of incitement." From an article written by a former negro officer in the Army, referring to the special equality accorded our negroes by the French, this extract is given: "Intelligent negroes have all reached the point where their loyalty to the country is conditional. The patriotism of the mass of negroes may now be called doubtful." The Government's own report says that "even the negro masses, there has been a dangerous sense of radical antagonism which is being thoroughly exploited by their leaders of the present hour," and that the trend is strongly toward "organized alignment with the most destructive forces of our political life." The single reassuring feature of the report is its evidence that the Government's eyes and ears are open.

William Randolph Hearst is up against another suit. This time Boss Murphy is after him with a suit for libel. There will probably be enough dirty Democratic linen exposed to public view in this pending suit to require the Nassau and Dixon line to hang it on.

SAUCERTIES.

When you say, "What's the price"
WHEN you come in here this fall and pick out a suit and say to the salesman "How much?" He'll say "$40" perhaps, or maybe "$50" or "$60"—depends on the suit you choose. You may say "Why, I can beat that price $5 or $10." Probably you can; but that isn't the point; you can't get as much clothes value for your money anywhere else; that $5 or $10 is in the suit; it's the $5 or $10 that makes good quality possible; and that makes the suit outwear the cheaper one two to one.

DAIRYMEN'S ANNUAL MEETING

Meetings of the local branches of the Dairymen's League are being held in nearly all of the 1,100 communities in league territory, to elect their local officers for the coming year and a delegate to attend the annual meeting of the parent organization in Jersey City on December 9.

Last year over 2,000 men from all parts of league territory attended the annual stockholders' meeting, passed upon the reports of the officers, and elected directors for the coming year.

This year the annual meeting will be even larger for the league has added nearly 25,000 new members during the year. In addition to transacting the regular business of the program there will be at least two speakers of national reputation who will discuss the general farm and dairy situation.

One of the big dangers of the times is the growing antagonism between the people who live in the city and those who live in the country. City people paying large retail prices for their food products are too apt to believe that the farmer is a profiteer; and vice versa, the farmer thinks that city folks have all the easy time. This feeling has been made worse by yellow journalism and by demagogues who make their living breeding trouble.

The annual mass meeting of the Dairymen's League calling to the big city of New York over 2,000 farmers from all sections of Dairymen's League territory helps to acquaint farm people with city conditions, and vice versa, if it were only possible to bring city folks to the country and show them the difficult conditions under which their food is produced it would do much to bring the classes together, for after all the basis of most troubles is misunderstanding.

AT THE THEATERS.

The Flirting Princess at the Opera House Tuesday.

Young people will enjoy Lila Lee's new Paramount picture, "The Heart of Youth," which is the attraction at Keeney's tonight, because it is written about them, but the keenest pleasure will probably be derived by the older folks. A monkey comedy and Hearst news pictorial are other attractions. Tomorrow Tom Moore in "The City of Contrasts."

The appearance of "Three's a Crowd," John Cort's first dramatic production of the current season, at the Kingston Opera House next Saturday matinee and night, is a matter of interest to theater-goers here.

Harry Bulger, the king of musical comedy, will be the attraction at the Kingston Opera House tomorrow matinee and night in his latest success, "The Flirting Princess." This is the rare great creation in which this great star kept Chicago holding its sides with laughter for an entire year at the LaSalle Theater.

Pessie Barriscale as "Kitty Kelly, M. D.," is the bill at the Auditorium tonight. It is described as a play that starts with a bang and ends with a clench. Fox news and Educational travel scenes also. Tomorrow Elsie Filgman in "The Marriage Prince."

PLATTEKILL.

Plattekill, Nov. 10.—This being Red Cross drive week, let us hope that the people may respond nobly to the call and the results be favorable.

ALBANY TRIMS K. H. S. ELEVEN

Local Boys Unable to Score on Visiting Players—Expenses Not Met Despite Large Number of Fans on Field.

The Kingston High School eleven went down to defeat before the heavy Albany High School crew on Saturday afternoon at the Athletic Field on Cornell street with a score of 21-0. Although the Kingston boys lost they put up a hard fight and Albany had to work hard for its victory. The Kingston boys were greatly outnumbered and found it extremely hard to hold up against Albany's heavy offensive plunges. The Garret and Grey made most of its gains on strong line plunges while the Maroon and White had to contend with making its gains on end runs and forward passes. Reudeman featured in the last quarter with a spectacular 30 yard run.

This is the second time that Albany high has walloped Kingston high at football. Until this year, the Garret and Grey has been unsuccessful in its attempts to score on the Maroon and White. However, this season's team is made up of a great deal smaller men than those of previous years. This is probably the reason that Albany found it so easy to score. Fortunately, the spirit of the Kingston players completely over shadows the lack of weight and literally turns defeat into victory. Summary of the game:

The score by periods:
Kingston High School... 0 0 0 0—0
Albany High School... 0 14 0 7—21
Touchdowns: Stanley, Reudeman, E. Bowen. Goals from touchdowns: Myers, J. Umpire: Buley, Kingston High School. Referee: Bauer, Colgate. Headlinesman: Delehant; linesmen: J. Bowen and Sawbones. Substitutions: Kingston High School, Cots for Weyant; Albany High School, Davenport for Flint; Simmons for Jarnhardt; Taylor for Kelly.

Unfortunately the Kingston high team was unable to play on, other than the Athletic Field on Cornell street. Since there is no money about the field, anyone can play without paying gate receipts. In every game, there are a number of fans about the field selling tickets. In 9 cases out of 10, the fans refuse to buy. Then, when it comes to pay expenses, the team has to dig deep and still lose. Saturday, approximately 500 fans turned out to the game. This did not help much financially. The records show that the team did not make expenses on the game.

LEIBHARDT HEIGHTS.

Bulger Remembered Here.

Harry Bulger, the comedian, who is the top liner with the big company that presents the musical comedy, "The Flirting Princess," at Kingston Opera House, Tuesday night, will be remembered by show goers twenty years ago.

Harry Bulger, who played here with Dockstader's Minstrels and with the Cosmopolitan Co. in "The Dazzler," while here at one time, William West, who has become a comedy star, married Josie DeWitt of the DeWitt sisters, of the "Dazzler" company, at St. Joseph's rectory, Matthews.

Bulger being of the same company.

THE FRANKLIN SEDAN

That enclosed cars offer most among automobiles, and the Franklin Sedan most among enclosed cars, is becoming apparent to more people every day.

Franklin Sedan performance is continually proving that a light, flexible enclosed car can travel unusually long distances in a day without exhausting rider or driver. And more motorists are seeing daily that this car can go where heavy, rigid ones can not. This explains the rapid increase in Franklin Sedan ownership.

Then, too, the general advertising tendency toward light weight and flexibility—Franklin principles for seventeen years—is teaching people what gives economy, comfort, usability and long life to a car. And the value of year-round usefulness, only possible with Direct Air Cooling (no water to boil or freeze) has become apparent through owner comparisons. No one disputes today the advantages of the proved economy resulting from

20 miles to the gallon of gasoline
12,500 miles to the set of tires
50% slower yearly depreciation

Wide Observation Windows giving unobstructed outlook, and two Wide Doors increasing vision and making access easy, combine with the Slanting V-shaped Windshield and the Sloping French-style Hood to distinguish the Franklin Sedan from commonplace designs. They also identify it as the car of unequalled performance.

Let us prove the Franklin Car to you. Whatever preconceptions you have of what a car should do, or whatever recollections you have of what your Cars have done, will be exceeded by Franklin performance, over roads of your choice.

THE KITCHEN CABINET

A wide-reaching household possession in your own true umbrella in this case of yours.

SOME CHOICE CAKES FOR OCCASIONS.

Careful baking is a most important part in successful cake making. If the cake is to bake our best, with the oven at the first quarter or 25 minutes and see that it commences to rise; the second quarter it should begin to rise and begin to brown; the third quarter it should begin to brown and begin to shrink from the pan, and the last quarter, before the baking, if a cake rises in the middle and cracks open, it may have too much sugar or too strong a heat. A cake filled with large holes has either too much baking powder or soda or it has not been well kneaded. It is not best to move a cake in the oven until it has finished rising, then it can be safely turned. The first five minutes one may turn a cake without injuring it. Chocolate Nougat Cakes—Cream one-fourth of a cupful of butter; add gradually one and one-half cupfuls of sugar and one egg beaten; when well mixed add two-thirds of a cupful of milk, two cupfuls of flour sifted with three teaspoonfuls of baking powder; add one-half teaspoonful of vanilla. To two squares of melted chocolate add one-third of a cupful of powdered sugar; add a third of a cupful of milk and cook until smooth. Cool slightly and add to the cake mixture. Bake in layers and put between the layers and on top.

Wedding Cake—Cream one pound of sugar gradually and beat until well mixed. Separate the whites and yolks of 12 eggs; beat the yolks until thick and lemon colored, the whites until stiff and dry. Add the yolks to the first mixture. To four cupfuls of sifted flour (one pound) reserve a third of a cupful to dredge the fruit. The rest sift with two teaspoonfuls of cinnamon and three-fourths of a teaspoonful each of allspice, mace, and nutmeg and a half-teaspoonful of cloves. Then add three tablespoonfuls of orange juice, one of rose water and two of lemon juice. Add a pound of currants and six, three pounds of raisins, one pound of citron, all cut fine and dredged with flour. Fold in the whites before adding the fruit. Bake three hours in a slow oven.

HOMESICK FOR ARCTIC SNOWS

No Affection About the Longing for Far North That is Experienced by Explorers.

If you are of ordinary health and strength, if you are young enough to be adaptable and independent enough to shake off the influence of books and belief, you can find good reason to be as content and comfortable in the North as anywhere on earth.

If you remember that all of us who have spent more than a year "living on the country," are quite of the Eskimo opinion that no food on earth is better than caribou meat, and if you have any experience in your life as a hunter anywhere, you will realize that in the evenings when we sit in these warm snug houses, feasting with keen appetites on unlimited quantities of boiled fish, we have all the creature comforts.

What we lack, if we feel any lack at all, will be possibly the presence of friends far away, or the chance to hear news or see the sunsets. At any rate, it is true that today in the north we find city living for more snow house dwellers after caribou hunts as I never in the North longed for clubs or concerts or orange groves. And this is not peculiar to me. The men who have hunted with me are nearly all of the same mind—they are either in the North now, on the way back there by whaling ship, or eating their hearts out because they cannot go.—Fitzhugh Steffen in Harper's Magazine.

Laid Color on Thickly.

There were periods when even men roared. In the Eighteenth century little attempt was made to imitate nature's coloring. The ladies "laid it on thick" in round red upon, and seemed to apply it as they did patches, to obtain a supposed decorative effect, and to simulate the blush of nature. The red and white they used, unlike the modern cosmetics, were actually poisonous, and there is record of more than one lady of quality who died from the effects of white lead.

Speedy Building.

Invention builders have developed a method of construction for temporary structures in which setting made of wooden rods is fastened to the supports, bound together with wire, and covered with plaster.

LEATHER FROM SKINS OF FISH

New Industry Is Established
Through Work of Experts.

SHOULD BE NO SHORTAGE

Bureau of Fisheries Makes Nets to Catch Sharks and Other Fishes, and Their Hides Have Been Tanned—Fishing Stations Established as Well as Exhibits of Shoes, Traveling Bags and Suit Cases.

At this time when there is increasing popular concern about the high and prospectively higher price of shoes, it is pertinent to direct attention to the fact that there should be no actual shortage of leather. While the war has interrupted and increased the cost of transportation of hides from South America, thereby enhancing the value of one kind of leather, it has been responsible for the creation of another kind of leather, leather from a shark and other fish skins. Through the efforts of experts under the direction of the United States bureau of fisheries an important and entirely new industry has been established.

Experiments Succeed.

Experiments having been made to determine whether serviceable leather could be made from the skins of fish, Lewis Radcliffe of the fishing industries division of the bureau applied himself to the task of overcoming the difficulties encountered. Unsatisfactory attempts had been made at tanning so scientific methods had to be brought to bear on the problem. An effective process of tanning was discovered and the next step was to secure a supply of skins and put it in operation. A special net was devised by the bureau, 600 yards long, 18 feet deep, 4-inch mesh. The top and bottom are lined with half-inch No. 18 thread rope, weighted with suitable leads below, buoyed by corks above. With one of these nets 2,000 big sharks were caught in ten days.

Fishing stations were established at Monrovia, N. C., Fort Myers, Fla. and Edmunds, Paget sound. A New York company has a tannery in Newark, while the bureau of fisheries has a wonderful exhibition of fish leather in one of the rooms of the Washington building. There are to be seen tables of shoes, black and tan color, traveling bags, suit cases, mu-er rolls, card cases, pocketbooks and novelties of various shades, plain, embossed and grained, that are a delight to the eye and without offense to the nose, although every one of them is made from a fish skin. Near by are sheets of leather soft and beautifully tanned, that once had covered that restless fish the shark, or a porpoise or a devilfish.

Superior Grade of Leather.

None but an expert would say they were not samples of superior grades of leather made from the hides of animals such as are commonly used in the trade. One likes to feel them and wonders at their pliability and their varied shades—gun metal, tan, terra cotta, red, blue, gray and brown, to those that seem like watered silk. The fish is superb.

Uses for all parts of the shark have been developed. The hides are made into leather, liver oil is obtained and sells at the plant, unrefined, for 90 cents to $1.10 a gallon, and the flesh and waste is turned into fish scrap to be used in fertilizer. Fish meat, a valuable animal food, also is a by-product. Shark meat for human consumption is sold and demand for it is increasing. Large quantities are reported to be stored in northern cities, especially in New York and New England, where its popularity is most marked.

WATCH STOPS SHOT

In a Man's Hip Pocket, Acts as Alarm Against Rear Fire.

While at work on a lawn at Fort Augusta, Pa., C. F. Boyer of Sunbury transferred his big silver watch from his vest to his hip pocket, and to this he attributes a possible escape from death.

A few minutes later he wanted to see what time it was, and found the timepiece stopped, the hands broken off and a big dent in the back. A high-power rifle bullet was also in his pocket, and a hole in the cloth told how it went in.

Boyer says he felt no shock and heard no sound, but as the bullet hit the dent in his watch there appeared to be no doubt that it was a stray shot from a rifle. The rifle is in full view of where he worked, and a person standing across the stream might have fired it. The police chief, who is an old Twenty-eighth division man, says it is not from an army rifle.

Dead for Small Ship.

An unusual deed was signed the other day by H. Dryden, Jr., for a strip of land 8 inches wide and 40 feet long in the bottom part of Hamilton, Pa. It is at the rear of ruins of the Palace Cafe, private headquarters and the Kaiser and German properties, which were destroyed by fire in the spring, and across in all of which was gained through the route by this small piece of ground. It has been bought by the owner of the Palace, who controls the entire tract.

Peruvian Sugar.

The commercial production of sugar cane in Peru is one of the important of Peru. An average crop of forty tons an acre is obtained, while some and even seventy tons in some sections. In other sugar growing sections, including Lima, twenty-five tons per acre is the rate.

Lightning Stole Lunch.

Lightning frequently acts the robber with foodstuffs, and some extraordinary happenings have been recorded from time to time. On one occasion a party of tourists were preparing dinner when suddenly and without warning a storm arose, followed immediately by vivid flashes of lightning. A few seconds later not a trace of the prepared meal was to be seen. The dishes were strewn on the ground, but all the bread, cheese and fruit had vanished, while the bewildered tourists were covered from head to foot with straw.

Experience.

It seems to me it is the same with love and happiness as with sorrow—the more we know of it the better we can feel what other people's lives are or might be, and so we shall only be kinder to them and wishful to help them.—George Eliot.

Origin of Names of States.

Connecticut is an Indian name meaning "Long River." Maine is regarded as of French origin from the province of Maine, Massachusetts is an Indian word meaning "Place of Great Hills," New Hampshire is English, coming from Hampshire county, England; Vermont is French, Vert Mont, meaning "Green Mountain." With reference to Rhode Island there is a difference of opinion, some claiming that it was named for the island of Rhodes and others for a prominent settler named Rhodes.

Fecundity of Fish.

The most prolific fish is the cod, the yield of which averages about 45,000,000 eggs each season. Many other kinds of fish are exceedingly prolific. More than 30,000 eggs have been counted in a herring, 35,000 in a smelt, 1,000,000 in a sole, 1,120,000 in a roach, 3,000,000 in a sturgeon, 540,000 in a mackerel, and 1,257,000 in a flounder.

'LOST BATTALION' HERO TO ASSIST CAMPAIGN

Colonel Whittlesey Promises Co-operation to Third Red Cross Roll Call.

Lieutenant-Col. Charles W. Whittlesey of "Lost Battalion" fame has offered his services to Major General John F. O'Ryan who is in charge of the membership campaign of the American Red Cross, according to an announcement by the campaign headquarters of the Atlantic Division of the Red Cross.

Of his own volition Colonel Whittlesey wrote to Major General O'Ryan, saying that he had heard the call that had gone forth for former service men and was willing, eager, to do his share of the work in the Third Red Cross Roll Call, November 2 to 11, if for no other reason than to repay to a small extent the splendid service which the Red Cross rendered the Seventeenth Division during the fighting in France.

Accompanying the announcement from the General's headquarters that Lieutenant-Colonel Whittlesey was to be counted on in the organization of workers came the information that Borough Park Post No. 153 of the American Legion a Brooklyn unit of the legion, had unanimously voted to exert its effort to the success of the drive, which is to close on Armistice Day.

Commenting on the willingness of former service men to aid in the drive, General O'Ryan said:

"It is what I expected, what I knew, for the service men, above all others, know the worth of Red Cross work. As the campaign organization is rounded into form the names of hundreds of thousands of former A. E. F. men will appear on the rolls of the workers."

There for a Good Time.

While entertaining our club one evening our hostess felt it her duty to ask a member to sing. Hesitating what we would have to endure, and without stopping to think, I suddenly exclaimed, "Oh, we came here to have a good time; let's play cards." The painful silence which followed, together with the look which the would-be singer gave me, made me truly experience the most embarrassing moment of my life.—Exchange.

Bank Has a Liquor License.

The Bank of England has the right to sell beer without a license. This privilege was granted to the bank in its charter of incorporation under the great seal, dated July 27, 1804. And so the bank, if it liked, could open a public house in Threadneedle street, or could send drays round and deliver beer from door to door.—Fitz-Rits.

An older brother had recently married and Bobby had been told that he could call his new sister-in-law Mary, instead of Miss Barbour as before. A few nights later, when a devoted admirer of his older sister was entertained at dinner, Bobby caused much embarrassment by inquiring "Mother, how soon can we begin calling Mr. Cagley Mary?"

DINNER TO BISHOP BURCHWEDNESDAY

On Wednesday evening of this week at 6:30 o'clock, there will occur at St. John's parish house, this city, the every name campaign dinner in honor of Bishop Burch of the eastern diocese of New York state. The dinner will be attended by the men and the clergy of the various parishes in the northern district of the diocese which includes Kingston, Saugerties, Hug's Falls, Rosendale, Stone Ridge, Elmsville and West Park. This dinner will be in character a reception to the newly elected bishop of the diocese, and will also offer the means of the every name campaign workers. In the district. Because of this double interest, it is hoped that every man in the parishes named will make it a point to attend the dinner. Tickets for the dinner will be one dollar, and those expecting to attend the dinner should promptly send in their names to the rector of St. John's Church, the Rev. Leighton Williams, D. D., or to the wardens of the church, C. V. A. Decker or Thomas A. Horton.

Other distinguished guests at the dinner will be the Rev. Dr. F. H. rector of St. Thomas Church, New York city and the Rev. Dr. E. L. Jones, Chaplain of the diocese.

Following the dinner, at 8 o'clock, Bishop Burch, and the other speakers will address the women of the Episcopal congregations and the public at large, at the church office. This meeting will not be service, but a meeting with addresses, and so many have expressed a wish to hear Bishop Burch speak, that a large audience is expected.

JAMES JAILED

Unable to furnish bond—Arrested on Complaint of Wife.

Harry James, 22 years old, was arrested in Newburgh Saturday by the authorities there at the request of the local police department. That afternoon Sergeant Phinney went to Newburgh and returned with James, who was arrested on complaint of his wife, charging him with failure to provide for her support.

James was arrested in May on the same charge and at that time was released on his agreeing to pay his wife $6 a week. He has not given her a cent in some time and a few days ago left town with a snake oil "doctor" who had been touring Kingston selling rattlesnake oil.

This morning Judge Schrick found James guilty after hearing the testimony of Mrs. James and informed James he must pay his wife $8 a week and give bail of $500 to guarantee the payment of that sum weekly.

James was unable to furnish bond and was committed to the Ulster county jail for months.

One of the most delightful Masonic events of the current year took place on Friday, November 7, when about 100 brothers of Kingston Lodge, No. 10, F. & A. M., journeyed to Maplewood, N. J., to pay a fraternal visit to Maple Lodge, No. 196.

A large reception committee of Maple Lodge met the Kingston delegation at the Robert Treat Hotel in Newark where the dinner was served at 5 o'clock. The delegation was then escorted to the lodge rooms at Maplewood about six miles from Newark where the degree of "Fall Cedars of Lebanon" was explained on a class of candidates of Maple Lodge by the degree team of Corinthian Lodge of East Orange after which a banquet was served to about 400 who were present, and a social hour enjoyed. During the course of the evening a beautiful engraved loving cup with three handles and about twelve inches in height was presented by Kingston Lodge to Maple Lodge. After the festivities, the Kingston brothers were returned to the hotel in Newark where reservations had been made. They returned to Kingston Saturday morning. The pilgrimage was most successful from every standpoint. A return visit is being planned by Maple Lodge.

AMERICAN LEGION CONVENTION ON

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Minneapolis, Minn., Nov. 10.—Before the largest body of ex-fighting men to assemble in this country since the war, National Chairman Henry D. Lindsay of Dallas, Texas, called the first national convention of the American Legion to order today.

The most important bit of business to come before the convention is the fight for $50 more pay a month for every month put in service by United States fighting men.

The election of a national commander promises to be a lively one. The following are being mentioned as candidates:

Franklin D. Oliver, Philadelphia; Colonel Edward L. Logan, Boston; Colonel "Wild Bill" Donovan, New York, and Colonel Milton F. Forman of Chicago. Major Luke Lee of Tennessee is also being boosted by his friends from southern states.

ABOUT THE FOLKS.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Whitaker of Newark, N. J., are spending a few days in this city, their former home.

Delia Harley was removed from No. 82 Franklin street to the Kingston City Hospital in the ambulance Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Volk, of 96 South Manor avenue, announce the engagement in marriage of their daughter, Viva, to Philip S. Grete, of New York city.

Mrs. Thomas Burroughs of Poughkeepsie has moved to Kingston and will make her home for the winter with her sister, Mrs. Louis Haysradt at her home on West Chester street.

Wallace Breitenbecker and wife and Joe Becker of Bloomingdale, N. J., motored to Kingston on Saturday and spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. Breitenbecker's sister, Mrs. Peter Hoey.

John J. McCordie of this city, who has charge of the installation of the machinery in the new Horton & Van Slyke cigar factory in Catskill, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Connerly at Catskill.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Hummel, who recently moved their household goods here from Glasgow, were guests at the Eagle Hotel from Friday until Monday when they opened their home on Henry street.

Benjamin Van Demark of East St. James street will leave Tuesday for Long Island City, N. Y., to accept a position with the J. G. White Co., with whom he has been formerly employed, the company having a large contract to tear down and reconstruct a large plant for Nichols Copper Co., which will take considerably over a year.

19 YEARS ABSENT.

Captain Tappen Here—Comes From Texas Oil Fields.

Captain N. Stanley Tappen, U. S. A., retired, is making an extensive visit at the home of his sister, Mrs. Frank Newkirk, 62 Lafayette avenue. Captain Tappen entered the army service nineteen years ago and returns to Kingston as a retired officer and a promoter of the great oil producing business in Texas. He is the organizer of the Southern Glory Oil Company and maintains the office of secretary and treasurer of his own company.

This being his first visit in nineteen years, Captain Tappen has found many changes in Kingston not only in his acquaintances but also in the progressiveness of our city as a commercial center. However, he is gratified at old Kingston's activities in industry and can still find his way around town with the help of the few ever standing centers that have made Kingston historical since the days of '76.

While in Kingston Captain Tappen will open an office at 40 John street.

Since entering the service Captain Tappen has seen active service in the Philippines, Mexico and at Honolulu. For the past two years he has been stationed on the border with the regular cavalry and is thoroughly familiar with the south, having been located on and about the border since 1908.

Compensation Law Upheld.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Washington, Nov. 10.—The amended New York workmen's compensation law, which was attacked as unconstitutional by the New York Central Railroad, was sustained by the supreme court of the United States today.

New Truck Coming.

The new motor Hook and Ladder truck purchased by the Kingston city fire commissioners will be shipped about November 15th to this city by Seagraves & Co., the makers, from Columbus, Ohio.

LABOR RALLIES

BEHIND MINERS

Armistice Day to See A. F. of L. Call For Mass Meetings All Over Country at Later Date.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Washington, Nov. 10.—Organized labor will be mobilized to support the striking coal miners.

The executive council of the American Federation of Labor decided to issue a call tomorrow for a series of nation-wide mass meetings by labor, the date to be set later.

"It doesn't look as though tomorrow is going to be 'armistice day' for labor," said W. D. Mahon, one of the members of the council.

CHURCH CELEBRATES

Poughkeepsie Church Burns Mortgage—Further Improvements Coming.

Sunday was the fourth anniversary of the Poughkeepsie Union Church, and it was observed with unusual joy and enthusiasm by the large congregations which taxed the seating capacity of the building. At the evening service the parsonage mortgage, which had recently been paid, was burned. The pastor, Rev. F. W. Moot, announced that he had concluded plans for new pews for the church, the condition being that the Ladies' Aid Society, which has $425 in its treasury, should devote $350 of this money towards pews and he would secure from friends outside of the city $600 which would be sufficient to pay for the same.

The large chorus choir under the direction of Mrs. J. B. Osterhout, did excellent work. Mrs. C. M. DuBois presided at the organ in unusual efficient manner. The floral decorations, which were very beautiful, were in charge of Harry C. Staples.
